April 15th, 2020 - in 1863 claude monet and frederic bazille left paris for barbizon a small village on the edge of the forest of fontainebleau forty miles south west of paris they came to this district to paint from nature in the open air and to make studies for landscape paintings far from the pressures of city life together with renoir and sisley they were following a well trodden path taken by painters'
