Motorola GM900 squelch opening when antenna connected

December 16th, 2018 - The earlier Motorola GM series 340 350 did have an internal squelch pot the GM900 is only adjustable via

---

software My suspicion is the squelch is signal level driven rather than opened by the noise level dropping Connecting an antenna probably increases the noise and hence the squelch opens'
